

Get Nordlux's videos automatically to your product pages

In collaboration with Nordlux, we enable you to get Nordlux's videos directly to your product pages, without any manual work!

Our free Quick Connect service automatically connects Nordlux's latest videos to your product pages. All you need to do is add a short JavaScript tag to your product page template.

Here's how to get started:

- ✦ Get in touch with brands@videoly.co
- ✦ Book a short 20 min Videoly walk-through
- ✦ Follow the easy instructions provided to you by Videoly team

Join the 400+ retailers already connecting thousands of product videos to their online stores.

Connect product videos at scale

Videoly helps you to connect thousands of brand and user-generated videos (reviews, unboxings, etc.) to your product pages automatically. Videoly Quick Connect is a free service. To learn more about our full service, scan your shop to find out how many videos we could find for your store!

"With Videoly our customers get a much better view of the product and it's easier for our customers to make a decision of whether to purchase or not."
